APPENDIX I

ROTATIONAL RESTRICTIONS ON PLANTING POPCORN

To prevent crop injury, many manufacturers of pesticides have set restrictions on how soon popcorn can be planted after prior use of a soil insecticide or herbicide. These restrictions change frequently as manufacturers continue their studies of impacts of their products on popcorn. We recommend that growers, before planting, check the labels of all products to be sure that previous agricultural applications do not restrict when popcorn should be planted.